SIXTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST
1st July 2018

When she heard about Jesus,
she came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, because she thought, "If I just touch his clothes,
I will be healed.

Jesus said,
"your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease."

WELCOME

Thank you for joining with us today.

If you are worshipping with us for the first time, or visiting,
please make yourself known to the welcomers or clergy.

If you intend to worship regularly with us, please fill in a card on the back table, and hand it to the staff or sides person.

Today's Worship

Sentence:

The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases, his mercies never come to an end; they are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.

Lamentations 3.22–23

Prayer of the Day:

O Christ for whom we search,
our help when help has failed:
give us courage to expose our need and ask to be made whole,
that, being touched by you,
we may be raised to new life in the power of your name. Amen.

MISSION OF THE MONTH- JULY:

The Bush Church Aid Society of Australia has a heart for people living in remote and regional Australia. We are committed to going the distance to reach Australia for Christ.

Under God, we do this by

- proclaiming Christ so that people may respond to Him;
- nurturing Christians in their faith and ministry;
- strengthening local Christian communities in their mission;
- providing services of Christian care and advocacy;
- developing an understanding of Christ's mission and
- promoting active partnership throughout the church.

Our core commitments are

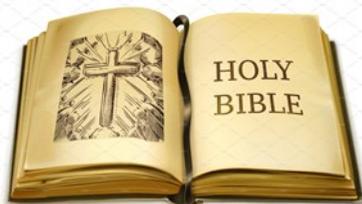

- relying on prayer for God's help and the Holy Spirit's guidance;
- trusting in the vision, wisdom, authority and encouragement of Scripture;
- working in humility, servanthood and fellowship with the church in mission;
- developing interdependent relationships with Diocesan Bishops;
- providing pastoral care and professional development for staff and
- responsibly managing our resources.

acceptable according to what one has—not according to what one does not have.
¹³ I do not mean that there should be relief for others and pressure on you, but it is a question of a fair balance between ¹⁴ your present abundance and their need, so that their abundance may be for your need, in order that there may be a fair balance. ¹⁵ As it is written,
“The one who had much did not have too much,
and the one who had little did not have too little.”

The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark, Chapter 5, beginning at verse 21

Glory to you Lord Jesus Christ

²¹ When Jesus had crossed again in the boat to the other side, a great crowd gathered around him; and he was by the sea. ²² Then one of the leaders of the synagogue named Jairus came and, when he saw him, fell at his feet ²³ and begged him repeatedly, “My little daughter is at the point of death. Come and lay your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and live.” ²⁴ So he went with him. And a large crowd followed him and pressed in on him. ²⁵ Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years. ²⁶ She had endured much under many physicians, and had spent all that she had; and she was no better, but rather grew worse. ²⁷ She had heard about Jesus, and came up behind him in the crowd and touched his cloak, ²⁸ for she said, “If I but touch his clothes, I will be made well.” ²⁹ Immediately her haemorrhage stopped; and she felt in her body that she was healed of her disease. ³⁰ Immediately aware that power had gone forth from him, Jesus turned about in the crowd and said, “Who touched my clothes?” ³¹ And his disciples said to him, “You see the crowd pressing in on you; how can you say, ‘Who touched me?’” ³² He looked all around to see who had done it. ³³ But the woman, knowing what had happened to her, came in fear and trembling, fell down before him, and told him the whole truth. ³⁴ He said to her, “Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be healed of your disease.” ³⁵ While he was still speaking, some people came from the leader’s house to say, “Your daughter is dead. Why trouble the teacher any further?” ³⁶ But overhearing what they said, Jesus said to the leader of the synagogue, “Do not fear, only believe.” ³⁷ He allowed no one to follow him except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James. ³⁸ When they came to the house of the leader of the synagogue, he saw a commotion, people weeping and wailing loudly. ³⁹ When he had entered, he said to them, “Why do you make a commotion and weep? The child is not dead but sleeping.” ⁴⁰ And they laughed at him. Then he put them all outside, and took the child’s father and mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was. ⁴¹ He took her by the hand and said to her, “Talitha cum,” which means, “Little girl, get up!” ⁴² And immediately the girl got up and began to walk about (she was twelve years of age). At this they were overcome with amazement. ⁴³ He strictly ordered them that no one should know this, and told them to give her something to eat.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ

Thank you ! To the faithful friends who have prayed for me over the past 8 months—Good news! I have been given the ‘all clear’ from the Oncologist . As a result of the radical surgery and the following months of chemotherapy, the results show the cancer has gone. God does answer prayers and I am literally eternally grateful. He obviously has something more for me in His Kingdom.

God Bless one and all! Nancy Tigwell

WHO IS THE LOCUM?

The Revd Canon Dr David Cole (DMin, PhD) comes from Newcastle, where he was born, educated (Conservatorium of Music, University, and St John’s College), married (to Susan Andrews), and ordained. His parish experience led to doctoral study, and service as an honorary priest at Grace Cathedral, San Francisco in 1984/5. On his return to Newcastle he headed the Diocesan Education Office and the Dept of External Studies at St John’s College, Morpeth. In 1992 he had further experience of the Episcopal Church in Oregon (USA), before returning to Newcastle.

From 1995 Fr David served at Trinity College (University of Melbourne) as Senior Chaplain, Director of the Theological School and Frank Woods Lecturer; and subsequently as Senior Chaplain and Head of Divinity at Overnewton Anglican Community College.

Following their retirement in 2009, he and Susan volunteered at Djarragun College (an indigenous Anglican College in Cairns) where they established chaplaincy, mentored staff and supported students. Fr David served as Acting Dean of Newcastle Cathedral in 2014, Locum Tenens at Ballina in 2015 and Murwillumbah in 2016, Acting Dean of Grafton (early 2017), and again Acting Dean of Newcastle (later 2017).

For the past 25 years David has been a member of the Editorial Committee of the Australian Hymn Book II (Together in Song), and committee chair for the past 17 years.

Now living at Lake Macquarie, David and Susan combine their love of travel (in Australian and overseas) with volunteer work. David is honorary Canon Liturgist at Newcastle Cathedral, and an adjunct faculty member of Trinity College Theological School.

David begins as our locum from Saturday 7th July.
